HARVARD DEFEATS YALE 36 TO O

Crimson Scores Greatest Triumph in Quarter Century in New Yale Bowl.

MADE 5 TOUCHDOWNS

Harvard Defense Remarkable -Brickley Kicks Good in Fourth Period.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 21 -Harvard scored her greatest triumph of more than a quarter of a century over Yale in the new Blue "bowl" today. Five touchdowns brought the points to 36 to 0 in favor of the 'rimson. The Harvard offense drove Yale back for many yards, while the dreaded Yale lateral pass was unable to bring a Blue score. Twice Yale stood almost under the Harvard goal post, but could not produce a score. The strength of the Harvard defense was one of the most remarkable shown by a Crimson team in many years. One of the sensations was the appearance of Captain Brickley in the fourth period. Brickley fig-ured in the scoring by kicking a goal. The usual demonstration followed the end of the game and it was singular that the three latest football edi-fices of Harvard, Princeton and Yale should have received their dedication by defeats of the home team. Harvard won the toss and elected to defend the south goal.

Yale gave the Crimson the kick-off and Mahan booted to Legore, who came back 30 yards from the 7-yard mark. Two attempts failed to gain and Legore punted to Mahan on Har vard's 20-yard line. The Harvaril back went all the way to Vale's 37yard mark. Knowles tackling him from Using Bradlee three times and Ma han once, the Crimson made a first down on the 25-yard line. Bradlee hit the line for five and Francks made six on a fake kick, then re-peated for five more, and Bradice on a delayed pass went to the first-yard Talbott threw a wing shift for a loss, but Hardwick took a for-ward pass from Mahan and scored a touchdown around Brann. The Crim son needed eleven rushes to score from the 37-yard line, missed a hard goal.

Score: Harvard 6, Yale 0. Knowles ran the second kick-off back 13 yards from the 15-yard line A lateral pass lost seven yards and one first down, then Yale stiffened and Mahan threw a forward pass out

Mahan skirting that end for successive runs of 19 and 22 yards. Then he went through the center for seven pass, Mahan made six yards. There was a fumble on the next play, the ball rolling across the line. Francke fell on it for a touchdown. Hardwick

Score: Harvard 12, Yale 0. Yale tried kicking off this time. Carter replaced Stillman and Bradlet was forced out of bounds at his 22 yard line. Harvard tried rushin; again, but Yale forced a punt, Legore running it back from his own 25 to Harvard's 45-yard mark. Alnsworth made five and Knowles three yards through the line. Knowles made the first down. He was used three times more and with three to go on the fourth down, shot a forward pass to Alnsworth on Harvard's 13-yard mark. Eight rushes had yielded 39 yards. Harvard was penalized and Knowles went the six-yard mark. Then he was stopped at center and on the next play fumbled. Coolidge recov ered and sprinted the length of the field for the third Harvard score Hardwick kicked this goal. Score: Harvard 19, Yale 0.

Walden kicked off and Mahan came back 20 yards to his 30-yard mark On the second rush Bradlee went through center standing up and rar to Yale's 30-yard mark. plays gained ten then Harvard was penalized 15 for holding. Mahan's at tempt at a field goal was blocked by Harvard. Fro mthe 40-yard mark Hardwick made seven, then Yale held Mahan kicked short for a field goal and Legore fumbled on his 10-yar. line, Harvard again recovering, Again Yale held and on his third try. this time from the 35-yard mark, Mahan drop-kicked a goal.

Score: Harvard 22, Yale 9. Walden kicked off and Harvard had advanced to its own 43-yard mark, when the half ended. During the first half, Harvard completely outplayed Yale in every department of the game. With the exception of a short flash at the beginning of the second period. Yale never threatened the Crimson while the Cambridge men rolled up a score of 22 points, which in but 30 minutes of play equals the largest previous score ever made by Harvard against Yale. The Elis also developed a disastrous fumbling streak in the second period, two fumbles directly resulting in touchdowns.

Third Period. Walden kicked off to Mahan on the ten-yard line. Manan ran back 27 yards, After two short gains Mahan punted and Legore's return punt was blocked. Wallace got it at Yale's 20-yard mark. Yale lost five for off side Mahan and Francke plowed
